

The Counter Reformation & The Catholic Church's Council of Trent

Central Historical Question:

Was the Council of Trent's Tridentine Index of Banned Books a necessary evil based on the needs of the Catholic Counter Reformation?

Notes: PRE-COUNTER REFORMATION

COUNTER REFORMATION

Based on Your Notes

1. Summarize the most important ideas in your notes:	2. Was the Tridentine Index of Banned Books a necessary evil? No ←-----→ Yes 3. Why?
---	--

Notes on: Doc#1 Profession of Faith issued by the Council of Trent

1. Who wrote this document? 2. What was their responsibility? 3. How is this related to the CHQ?	4. Was the Tridentine Index of Banned Books a necessary evil? No ←-----→ Yes 5. Why?
---	--

Notes on: Document #2 Official statements from the Council of Trent

1. Who wrote this document? 2. What was their responsibility? 3. How is this related to the CHQ?	4. Was the Tridentine Index of Banned Books a necessary evil? No ←-----→ Yes 5. Why?
---	--

Notes on: Document #3 The Tridentine Index of Books, 1564

1. Who wrote this document? 2. What was their responsibility? 3. How is this related to the CHQ?	4. Was the Tridentine Index of Banned Books a necessary evil? No ←-----→ Yes 5. Why?
---	--

